

Client Agreement

For energy, healing and transformational work with Kasia Rachfall, Evolutionary Therapist, Healer & Teacher based in Kelowna, BC, Canada.

Welcome, ambitious, courageous soul!!

I'm so excited to work with you! I do the work I do because I want you to fully see and hear your extraordinary self so that you can be fully seen and heard in the world.

I believe change can happen faster than you ever thought possible and you can put your gifts and talents out into the world, be renowned and respected for your work, and not have to sacrifice or lose yourself in the process. You can take charge of your mindset, your energy, your spiritual connection and trust yourself to achieve all your goals.

*This agreement lays out the context of our work together, what you need to do/be in order to be successful, what you can expect, what I expect and answers the most commonly asked questions.

Please read through and understand this document. By submitting payment for your session(s) you declare that you have read and understood the process, and terms and conditions of our work together.

Section 1: Our Work Together

Session Flow & Structure

Whether we work together for a period of time or only for one session, we take the time to zero in on your main goal / outcome for our work together. I will hold space for you to answer the questions that I am intuitively guided to ask. I call on the help of my spiritual team and your spiritual team. This means spiritual Guides, Masters, Angels and other support for our highest good and the highest good of all. We may also access your Akashic Records or Soul Agreements for guidance and bring in any of the many tools and modalities I am trained in: Neuro-Linguistic Programming, Coaching, Specialized (aka Energy) Kinesiology, Time Line Therapy®, Mental Emotional Release Technique®, Mediumship and others.

The work will probably be different from what you might have expected. In total, we will not spend a lot of time talking about the problem, just gathering information about it. In fact, most of the session is about other things.

It is very important for us to discover the internal thought process of HOW you create the problem. That means that we are looking for your strategy, or how you structure the problem. Because our focus is on structure, that means that, once we discover it, we can move on and focus on having the problem disappear very quickly.

Because of this, I may cut short your answers or even talk about your problem in ways that you have never considered. I may ask you questions that you do not totally understand consciously in order for your Unconscious Mind to make the changes you want at the unconscious level and Higher Self level. It is important to do this so that we can reduce the time taken for the therapeutic and healing process.

Your commitment is to answer the questions from an honest place of self reflection and knowing what your deepest truth is, not from a habitual or knee-jerk place of how you may have answered such questions before.

Your commitment is also that you will need to uncover and to stubbornly focus on what you want. The people who are happiest overall in life are those who recognize that you have a choice to focus on what you don't want or what you do want.

After the session You Must Focus On What You Want and complete all homework.

If your old pattern attempts to rear its head, then you must refuse to run that pattern again and use the tools and strategies I offer you to manage it. Please remember that I have the utmost, total and complete respect for you and absolutely no respect for your old problem.

You will never be judged or told what you do.

You have full choice over what you decide to do with the information that comes up in sessions.

You are the sovereign authority on yourself.

Additional information about Energy Kinesiology work: we will work with your physical body and energy field and use muscle testing and acupressure points to isolate where you are holding stress and what your body needs to release it. This modality requires light touch over clothing (if in person) and is an effective way to release imprints of the past from your system and balance your energy towards what you want instead.

Appendix: Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How can I continue to work with you after my session is finished?

We may continue to work together based on your ongoing goals and needs. I am honoured to continue working with you and we can discuss how that looks and feels in a call. Often clients will continue to invest in a package of sessions to continue working together every 6-8 weeks.

Q: How does the healing actually happen?

Our unconscious (aka subconscious) mind's most important job is to protect the body and the mind. When we experience a painful event the emotions we feel can become trapped in our nervous system. If we can't cope with what we experience in that moment our mind puts boundaries around the unprocessed emotions and stores the memory for however long it takes for us to be ready to process them. Sometimes we may be ready very quickly. Sometimes it may take many, many years. The boundary in our nervous system causes us to form beliefs and behaviours that continue allowing us to cope what happened. New neurological connections are forged and different thought patterns form as a result.

When we are ready to release the painful emotions our unconscious mind must know that it's safe for us to bring up what's within that boundary. This is why I ensure the space I hold is safe and non-judgmental. When we're ready to do whatever it takes to let go and change and release the pain the door for healing is wide open. I call on my Spiritual team, my guides, the client's guides and flow Source Energy and am guided to use language to ask the questions that the client needs to answer and find the perspective shift on. The high frequency of the Source Energy and space I hold and the conscious dialogue I have with the client blows out the boundaries in the nervous system and the problem dissolves. The negative emotions clear and love pours in.

Another way to explain it is the frequency of the negative emotion trapped in the nervous system is at a low vibration. The Source Energy I flow and the space I hold vibrate at a very high and powerful frequency. When the client is ready to release the pain and no longer resisting the healing that's possible, the higher vibration raises the frequency of the problem and dissolves it in the process.

Q: Will I feel the Energy Flow? What should I expect?

Some clients feel a tingling sensation all over their body. Others only feel it on the top of their head. And yet others feel nothing. During the session all you need to do is receive the energy

Q: What are the Akashic Records?

During our sessions I may open up your Akashic Records, we will ask the questions you have, and I will share with you all the information I receive for you. I receive the information in the form of thoughts, words, feelings and images. The Akashic Records are the vibrational archive of your Soul and hold information about your Soul's past, present and future possibilities. You will receive information that you need to hear, not necessarily always what you want to hear.

We will ask questions while the Records are open and receive real time guidance. Your Record Keepers may ask you questions, too. Your commitment is to answer questions from an honest place of self reflection and knowing what your deepest truth is, not from a habitual or knee-jerk place of how you may have answered such questions before.

Q: What is Specialized (Energy) Kinesiology & SIPS®?

This system uses muscle testing as a bio-feedback mechanism to uncover where the body and mind holds stress, beliefs, emotions, and patterns, and what it needs to clear them and release the muscle memory of them. Using light acupressure points, Chinese 5 element theory and meridian balancing techniques we balance your energy systems so that you are mentally, emotionally and physically free of the past and can more easily achieve your goals. SIPS® stands for Stress Indicator Point Systems and is a method of releasing stress from the body using acupressure points. Because I have training in distance energy healing I do these sessions both virtually via Zoom and in person. Both types of sessions are equally effective.

Q: What are Soul Agreements?

This is a system of interpreting energy based on the energy of numbers. Each of us is born into a pattern and cycle based on our date of birth. Soul Agreements allow us to create a map of our challenges, lessons, gifts and possibilities. They offer us information on how to navigate and master our life.
